

Secondary phase moderation opportunities

Summer 2011

Led jointly by Lead Assessment Departments and the English Team

KS3 Moderation

Eggars School, Alton

26th May 2011 – 1.30-4pm

An opportunity to have your end of Key Stage 3 judgements moderated in a small group, cross-school session.

Benefits to attendees:

- Receive feedback on the quality of your level judgements and on the quality and range of your assessment evidence
- Practise moderation of level judgements using evidence from different schools and gain an insight into their assessment practices and processes
- Be part of an open discussion on best practice in task setting to yield assessment evidence and assessment and moderation procedures

Please bring:

- Assessment evidence for 2 students in reading and writing, with highlighted/annotated APP guidelines grids

Teachers at any stage of their professional development may attend

Spoken Language Study: controlled assessment task moderation

Yateley School, Yateley

15th June 2011 - 1.30-4pm

An opportunity to bring completed spoken language study tasks to a cross-school group.

Benefits to attendees:

- Receive feedback on the quality of your banding judgements and gain an insight into how other schools are approaching this new area of the specifications.
- Be part of an open discussion on best practice in task setting and approaches to the teaching of spoken language study
- Take a view on the opportunities and resources offered by other exam specifications

Please bring:

- 2 completed and marked spoken language tasks – if you have taught this unit in year 10
- your exam board mark scheme for this unit
- the range of exam board tasks available to you
- any resources you have used and would be willing to share

Attendance at both meetings is free, but if you plan to attend, you MUST book a place.
